A TRAVELLING EXHIBITION DEVELOPED BY THE LACOMBE
& DISTRICT HISTORICAL SOCIETY / LACOMBE MUSEUM

PORTRAITS OF WAR: WE REMEMBER

Through immersive storytelling, visitors will learn about the personal experiences and stories of veterans from the Lacombe region who served in various conflicts, such as the First, Second, Korean, and Afghanistan Wars, at the Portraits of War exhibit. They will have the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the sacrifices and experiences of these individuals through the display of their portraits, artifacts, and the storytelling that accompanies them.

This exhibit has interactive elements including uniforms to try on, tour scripts, curriculum program writeups, access to 4 Lacombe Museum virtual exhibits, and 3 video interviews Lacombe Museum curators conducted with our regional museum partners in 2020.

PORTRAITS OF WAR WE REMEMBER

First World War

World War I: Platoon and Family
Lacorne & Ontario Historical Society Archives 98.1.34

After the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria-Hungary, the nations of Europe were soon at war. The First World War, also known as The Great War, was fought from 1914-1918.

More than 650,000 Canadians and Newfoundlanders served – out of which 66,000 of our service members gave their lives and more than 172,000 were wounded

1914 – 1918
